VOL. I. NOW READY. VOL. II. IN PRESS.

The Issues of the Press in Pennsylvania.

1685 to 1784.

This work is an attempt to present full titles and collations of all the books, pamphlets, and broadsides issued in Pennsylvania during the hundred years following the introduction of printing into the Province. It will contain over four thousand titles, of which about one-third cannot be found in any bibliographical work. About one-half of these are strictly accurate, having been made by personal examination of the books, etc., in the principal libraries of England and America. The remainder were obtained by a careful examination of all the newspapers published in Philadelphia prior to 1785, bibliographical works, sale and other catalogues.

The work will form two volumes of about four hundred pages each, and the edition will be limited to two hundred and fifty copies. Volume I. covers from 1685 to 1763 inclusive. Price, $7.50 per Volume.
